

Don't just check the price, check your tailor too!

- Does he use only wool in his suits? Henry does. Check for nasty man made fibres, such as polyester. And his shirts? Are they only the finest Egyptian cotton? Don't be afraid to ask.
- Is he a bespoke outfitter? Henry is. Will your suit for its subsequent fitting come back unfinished, with stitching marks, ready to make the best fitting suit for you? If it comes back finished, straight away – and your tailor is not with you to go through the suit with you – it is not a bespoke suit
- Is your suit Made in England, with English wools, from English sheep, spun in English mills? Henry makes his suits in England, using the best English materials and tailors.

Question: which wools do you use in this range? Henry Herbert buys his wools from English (or Scottish) mills only, including Holland & Sherry, Harrisons, Bateman Ogden, Brook Taverner & Dugdale.

When choosing your fabric from each book, you will clearly see which wool, from which mill, you have chosen.
