An exclusive experience is about to hit town for you gents. Do you like exclusive? Do you like bespoke? Well, you have come to the right page and you will need to grab your last minute essentials after reading this!

I headed over to the prestigious Park Lane, where the London Marriott Hotel is located to find out more and indulged in a truly gentlemanly experience, the Mr. Mayfair stay. The offer included a pampering package for gentlemen guests, with an opportunity for bespoke tailoring at the newly refurbished hotel.

Upon my arrival, friendly doormen ushered me into an elegant lobby. A heavenly floral scent vapoured around the room, whilst I was greeted by a friendly receptionist who was ready to show me to my suite. A door opened widely to my one bedroom suite. The deep aubergine-coloured fabrics in contrast with the french grey walls were the first things to catch my eye. After settling in, I was offered a glass of whiskey to unwind as part of the complimentary package.

What was best about this stay is that everything was at my doorstep.

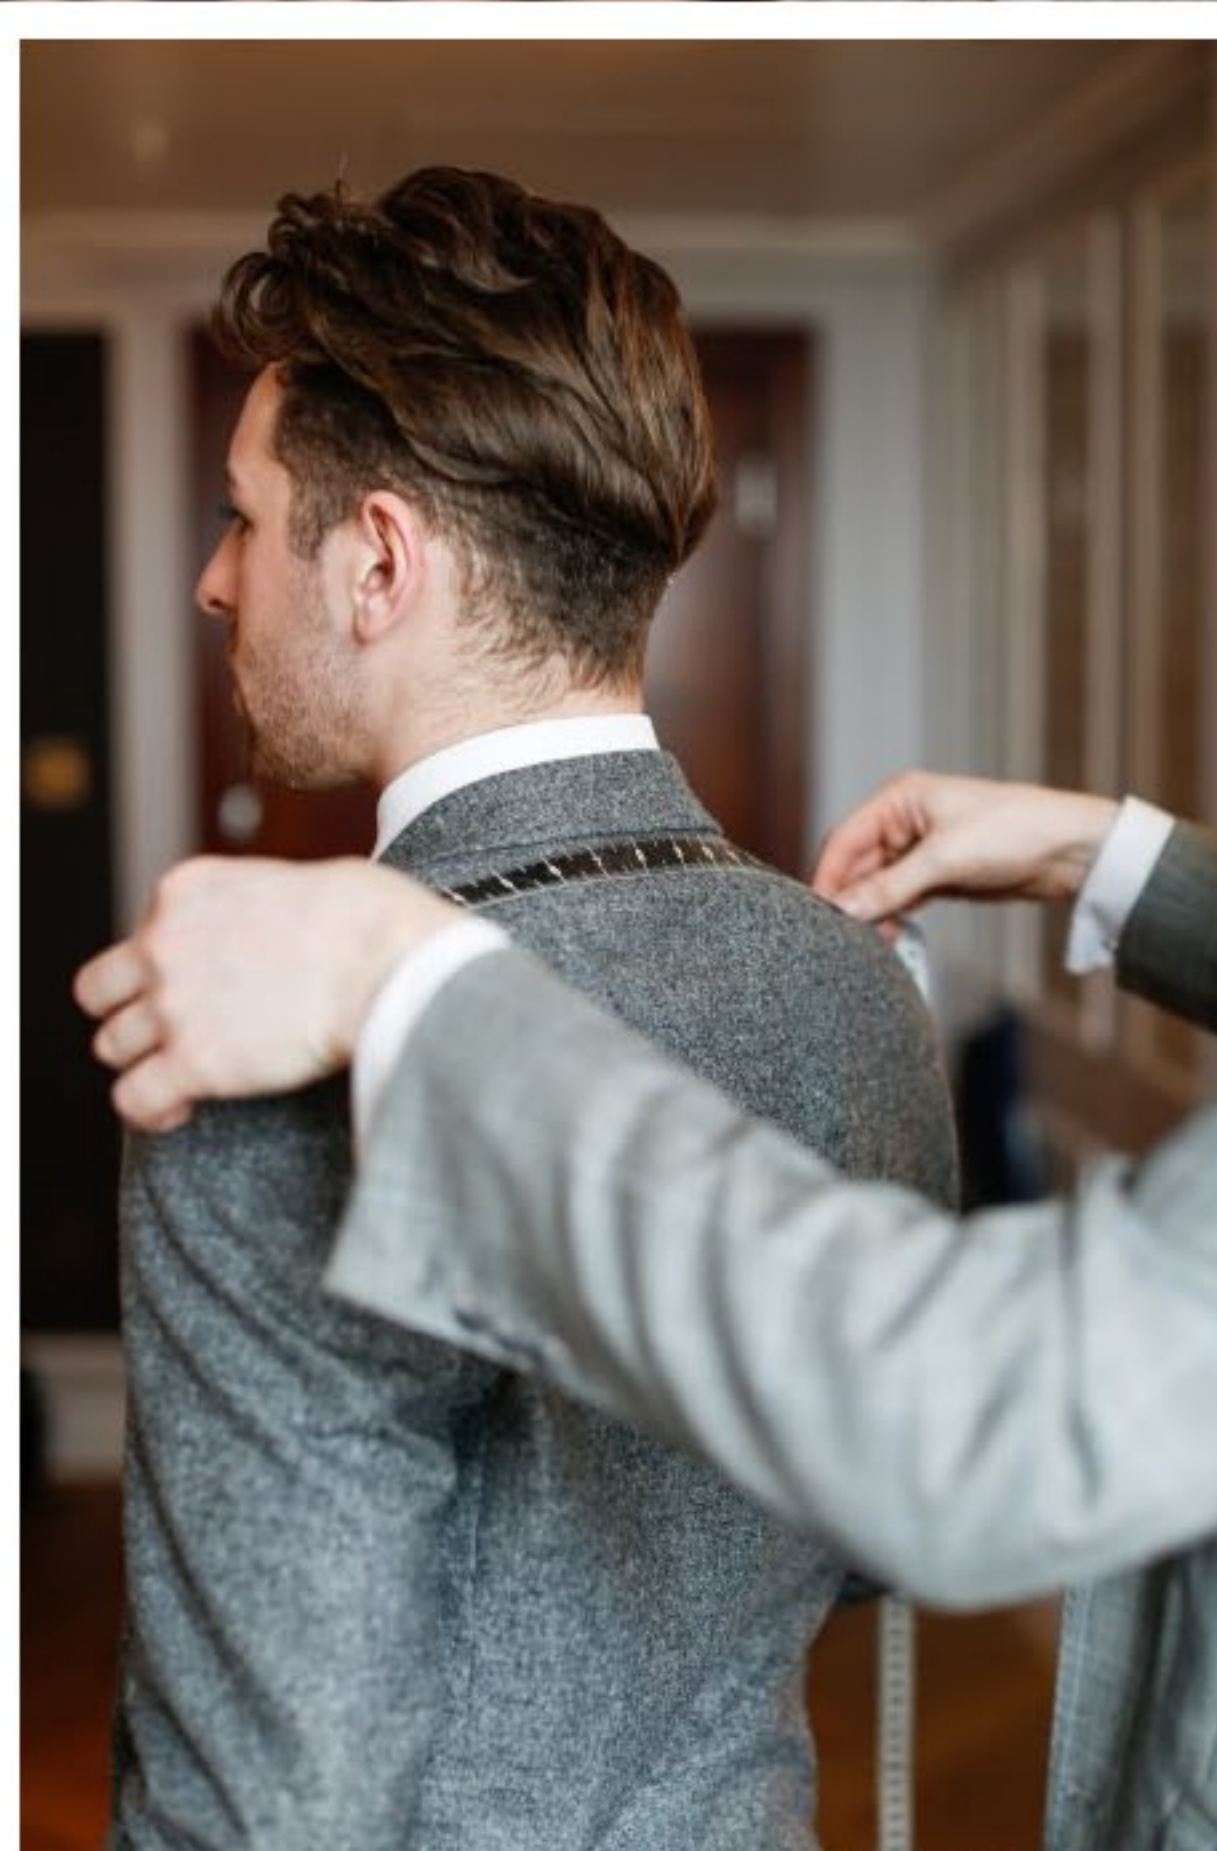

An exciting project was taking place at the hotel. Charlie Baker-Collingwood, Founder of Henry Herbert Tailors, and his expert team known for their bespoke suits and shirts, offered me a free consultation. They measured me up and introduced me to their finest fabrics for my next tailored suit, selected from the best mills in England and Scotland. I asked how long these bespoke suits will take to be made and you will be happy to hear that they take up to one and half week for express suits, or up to six weeks for standard orders. My favourite part of this service is that it was all done in the comfort of my own suite. Additionally, expert shoe shine The Jaunty Flâneur, was there to provide the best service in London. Sitting back and relaxing on the comfortable Jaunty Flâneur plush velvet armchair was my favourite part. It wasn't just a polish, however, as I also got to select the colour of my shoes. Sounds tempting right?

If you need a city escape to polish yourself up, then you're heading in the right direction. Mr. Mayfair is available to all gentlemen guests staying in a suite from October 2016 to March 2017.

After all, this is a very fine Mr. Mayfair experience. Cheers to that whiskey!
